Barack Obama: Harbinger of the apocalypse

All of the statements in this humor piece come from real comments on blogs and other social media network sites.*

Any red-blooded, freedom-cherishing, temple recommend-holding, tithe-paying, old grandma-caring, Bible-reading, Jesus-loving Defender of Truth and Righteousness knows that scripture foretold the rise and fall of Barack Obama, the Harbinger of the Apocalypse. “And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven” (Luke 10:18). A little-known fact, thanks to Obama using billions of taxpayer dollars to suppress it and his Kenyan birth certificate, is that Obama’s name in both Hebrew and Arabic means “lightning”. Who else could this scripture be referring to? It’s all right there. Glenn Beck showed it to me on a chalkboard right after he remarked that “sometimes God really sucks” for letting his political candidate lose an election.

Thankfully, true Americans have not lost sight of the fact that the re-election of Obama as president heralds the collapse of the United States. “This election epitomized the ancient prophets calling the people to repent of their wickedness,” said one lover of freedom. “America chose to worship the golden calf rather than look to God and change their evil ways. Obama, the golden calf, provides the easy path to bondage while righteousness and freedom are hard work...It is up to the elect to continue to forge a path of light and truth. Sadly those who choose God and freedom will always be a minority, but we will have a perfect God on our side!”

One defender of justice also recognized that Obama is a threat to our destiny as God’s chosen people. “Who could fulfill the prophecies of the last days better than Obama?” asked this brave soul. “America will be weakened. Deals with Russia will be made. We are set for a rise of the Muslim Brotherhood in the Mid-east and for ‘all the world to be arrayed against Israel.’ The time seems ripe.”

“Mormon and Moroni, after all their warnings, must be shaking their heads at us,” added another warrior of light, “but they had seen it all before. To those of us who believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God, we have not practiced what it preaches and warns about government and secret combinations in addition to testifying of Christ.”

Quite true. It is, after all, the 14th Article of Faith which states: “We believe that only those who vote Republican are true believers in the Book of Mormon.”

Despite these dolorous prognostications, all hope is not lost. “If President Obama chooses to lead from the middle,” pronounces a warrior of truth, “he may have a successful presidency, and good for him, if he does. However, if he continues to choose to lead from the left, then the eventual collapse may just be the thing we need to establish Zion. If that is the case, then Mitt Romney will be a good choice for leading the Council of 50 or whatever other representative government we then choose.”

This is the key! Mitt Romney may have lost the presidency, but he can still lead us to establishing Zion when the US collapses under Obama’s tyrannical reign.

But why should we wait for the US to collapse? We should take appropriate steps ourselves to select Romney as our new leader of Zion. “I personally don’t understand why Americans are so viscerally opposed to the idea of secession,” comments a valiant crusader with perplexity. “The country is divided politically, why not geographically? Would it really be such a big deal? ... Yes I’m serious, and yes I’m familiar with the Civil War. Secession doesn’t have to be violent, and America doesn’t have to be a gang that states can never leave.”

Of all of Obama’s sins, one stands out. As one values upholder remarked, “The primary reason for God to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah wasn’t because they had homosexuals, but because of inhospitality (a major sin in ancient Middle East). Sexual sin was being forced upon everyone, including visitors. When our nation begins to force sin upon the people, then we will be ripe for destruction.”

The heartbreaking evil of “social justice”, which can only rationally be characterized as forcing “sexual sin” upon an oppressed populace, and not as law-abiding citizens seeking equal protection under the law regardless of sexuality or gender, stands above all of Obama’s other transgressions, unmistakably marking him as The Beast.

So there you go, friends. Obama’s re-election is going to bring the apocalypse. Obama is going to force us all into homosexual marriages and require that we abort our babies while he cracks the whip and demands we buy affordable healthcare and sacrifice a little more so that 47% of the nation’s populace can have things like food and shelter.

Anyone, like the First Presidency, who encourages “...Americans everywhere, whatever their political persuasion, to pray for the [newly elected] President [Obama], for his administration and the new Congress as they lead us through difficult and turbulent times” must be anti-Zion. Anyone, like Elder Dallin H. Oaks, who suggests that we sit down and “conduct [our] political discussions and advocacy in a civil manner” must be anti-freedom. And what kind of a Church, like this one, asks its members to “engage in the political process in an informed and civil manner, respecting the fact that members of the Church come from a variety of backgrounds and experiences and may have differences of opinion in partisan political matters”? Only one that hates America.

But rest assured, frightened reader, that, as one put it, “God knows what is happening. He has let the world know that Mormonism exists and is a force for good. Now if or when the nation collapses, Mormonism will be able to step forward and the elders of Israel will build Zion with the help of many other righteous people. That will be an awesome day!”

Amen! The downfall of the United States under Barrack Obama, the Harbinger of the Apocalypse, will pave the way for Jesus to return and ordain Mitt Romney to lead us in a glorious utopia of Republican glory.
